MAKERS

WOMEN WHO MAKE AMERICA

The UC Davis Biotechnology Program, Grad Pathways and ESTEME present the next film installment for the series, the PBS film special: Makers: Women in Politics! This film tells the story of the exceptional women who have achieved the unachievable in politics and have strived for true equity and leadership! We are proud to announce our special guest, local broadcast and television station KVIE who will discuss the significance of this film and the movement.

Refreshments will be provided

Please RSVP: <http://makerspolitics.eventbrite.com>
